

Spl Criminal Case No. 1/2018

O R D E R On Exbt No.D-6 &7

(Delivered on the 7th day of the month of May of the Year 2018)

This is an Order on applications filed by the accused to take on record a ration card and the translation of it, to prove his address. By an Order dated 12.12.2017, passed in Bail Application No.200/2017, this Court had granted bail to the accused and one of the conditions imposed was that he was to furnish his identity proof along with his local address and native address. By these applications the accused seeks to produce his ration card. Ld P.P. objected to the same by making an endorsement on the reverse of Exhibit D-6.

2. It is however, seen from the xerox copy of the ration card that the name Vinod has been inserted later on. The eight names which figured originally in the ration card have been initialed by the concerned Inspector/Ration Supplier Officer. There is no initial against the name of the accused. There is no explanation given as to why the name of the accused had not been earlier entered into the said ration card and when it was entered and by whom. The entry is in different hand writing as compared to the other entries. Thus, it appears that this entry of the name of the accused is a false entry. As the entry in respect of the name of the accused is not authenticated, as has been done in respect of the other entries by the initial of the concerned Inspector/Ration Supplier Officer, the said ration card is not accepted as address proof of the accused. Hence, the applications are dismissed.
