CNR No.HRJR03-001711-2018
CIS No.COMA-297 of 2018
Criminal Complaint No.43 of 2018
Date of Institution:14.06.2018
Date of Order:18.08.2018

Saroj Devi Vs. Kuldeep

Complaint under Section 138 of Negotiable Act, 1881.

Present: Sh. Robin Gulia, Advocate for complainant.

Order:-

Brief facts of this complaint are that in order to discharge his liability, the accused had issued a cheque bearing no. 011705 dated 06.04.2018 for Rs.2,90,000/- drawn on Panipat Urban Co-op Bank in favour of the complainant, but the said cheque was returned with the remarks of “Fundsinsufficient”. The complainant informed the accused about the matter, but the accused has been avoiding the same on one pretext of the other. A legal notice was sent to the accused on dated 16.05.2018 and despite legal notice, the accused has not paid the cheque amount. With these averments, prayer is made to summon the accused to face trial for the commission of an offence punishable under Section 138 of Negotiable Instrument Act, 1881.

2. In order to corroborate his case, the complainant has examined Sh. Saroj Devi as CW1 and has placed on record his affidavit as Ex.CW1/A, original cheque bearing no. 011705 dated 06.04.2018 Ex.C1, cheque return memo dated 24.04.2018 Ex.C2, account statement Ex.C3, legal notice dated

16.05.2018 Ex.C4 and postal receipt and Ex.C5 and closed his preliminary evidence vide making separate statement.

3. Keeping in view the above oral, as well as documentary evidence produced on behalf of complainant, this Court is of the opinion that there are sufficient grounds to summon the accused to face trial for the commission of offence punishable under Section 138 of Negotiable Instrument Act, 1881. Now the accused be summoned under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instrument Act, for dated 17.11.2018 on filing of P.F, R.C. within 7 days.

Present:- Sh. Parveen Chahar, Ld. Counsel for the petitioner/DH.
JD not present.

Warrant of arrest issued against JD Sombir received back unserved. Perusal of case file shows that despite best effort his presence could not be procured through warrant of arrest. It appears that he is intentionally abstaining his presence before the Court. Hence, to my mind his presence can only be procured through proclamation. Hence, let proclamation be issued against the JD Sombir for 07.09.2018.

Date of Order:18.08.2018

Mukesh Vs. Panna Lal

Complaint under Section 138 of Negotiable Act, 1881.

Present: Sh. Surender Kumar , Advocate for complainant.

Order:-

Brief facts of this complaint are that in order to discharge his liability, the accused had issued a cheque bearing no. 974437 dated 09.05.2018 for Rs.2,00,000/- drawn on PNB Bank in favour of the complainant, but the said cheque was returned with the remarks of “Account closed”. The complainant informed the accused about the matter, but the accused has been avoiding the same on one pretext or the other. A legal notice was sent to the accused on dated 24.05.2018 and despite legal notice, the accused has not paid the cheque amount. With these averments, prayer is made to summon the accused to face trial for the commission of an offence punishable under Section 138 of Negotiable Instrument Act, 1881.

2. In order to corroborate his case, the complainant has examined Sh. Mukesh as CW1 and has placed on record his affidavit as Ex.CW1/A, original cheque bearing no. 974437 dated 09.05.2018 Ex.C1, cheque return memo dated 09.05.2018 Ex.C2, account statement Ex.C3, legal notice dated

24.05.2018 Ex.C4 and postal receipt and Ex.C5 and closed his preliminary evidence vide making separate statement.

3. Keeping in view the above oral, as well as documentary evidence produced on behalf of complainant, this Court is of the opinion that there are sufficient grounds to summon the accused to face trial for the commission of offence punishable under Section 138 of Negotiable Instrument Act, 1881. Now the accused be summoned under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instrument Act, for dated 03.01.2019 on filing of P.F, R.C. within 7 days.
