

Case is again called out. Petitioner, Respondent and their respective counsels are present. The Petitioner and Respondent jointly filed compromise petition through their advocates with signatures submitting that they have amicably settled the dispute at the intervention of the elders. Heard and perused the compromise petition. The contents of compromise petition is read over and explained to both the parties for which the Petitioner and Respondent submitted that they have understood the contents, having understood itself they put their signatures and thereby, they submitted that the case may be disposed of in terms of compromise petition.

Having enquired and heard it is opined that there is no legal impediment to consider the compromise petition therefore, to meet the ends of justice I proceed to pass the following;

ORDER

Joint compromise petition filed by the Petitioner and Respondent is allowed and accordingly, the petition is disposed of in terms of compromise petition.

Office to draw compromise decree accordingly.
