

Case called before lok adalat. The complainant and accused and their respective counsels are present. Both parties are filed joint compromise petition. The content of the joint compromise petition is read over to the both the parties. Both are agreed with the same. In view of the compromised between the parties the complaint against the accused is hereby dismissed in terms of their compromise.

Conciliator.

Member.