

ORDER BELOW EXH.17

(Passed on 20th day of January, 2020)

1. The appellant moved present application and seeking permission to file certain documents on record. The learned counsel for the respondent filed detailed say and opposed the application.

2. Perused the application, say and record. Heard.

3. Present appeal is at it's initial stage. The appellant is willing to file the documents in relation to the appeal No.2/2016 which is pending between the parties in the same Court. So also, the appellant is willing to file the minutes of General Body Meetings, held on concern dates.

4. It is the contention of learned counsel for the respondent that by moving this kind of application, the appellant is willing to prolong the matter. Hence prayed for rejection of the application.

5. As I earlier said, said documents are in relation to the property appeal No.2/2016 and minutes of General Body Mdding. In view of nature of document and stage of appeal, it can not be said that they are filed at belated stage. Apart from it mere production has been sought. Therefore, application can be allowed. Hence, following order is passed.
