

Order below Exhibit No.01

(Passed on 29/01/2019)

- 1] By this application, the applicant is seeking various reliefs under the provisions of the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005.
- 2] During the pendency of present proceeding for evidence of the applicant, the applicant and non-applicant arrived at amicable settlement. Accordingly, they have filed pursis Exh.18 and thereby showed their interest in settling the matter in mediation. Therefore, vide Referral Order Exh.19, the matter was sent for mediation. Both the parties settled their dispute at mediation as per terms and conditions Exh. 21.
- 3] Today the applicant and her advocate Shri. D.G.Undirwade and non-applicant and his advocate Shri K.T.Satpute appeared before this Court. Vide pursis Exh.22 they intimated that in pursuance of amicable settlement, the applicant received Rs. 27,000/- and gift articles from the non-applicant. Therefore, she does not want to proceed with the case. So also the applicant acknowledged receipt of Rs. 27,000/- from the non-applicant at mediation below Exh.1.
- 4] Looking to the submission made by the applicant, it appears that the case is settled amicably in view of terms and conditions at Exh. 21, therefore, she does not want to proceed with the matter. It is sweet choice of the applicant to proceed or not to proceed with the matter. As the claim of applicant is amicably settled, there is sufficient ground to permit the applicant to withdraw the application. Hence, I pass the following order.

ORDER

- 1] The application (Exh.1) is disposed of finally as withdrawn by the applicant in view of terms and conditions of settlement (Exh.21). ..2..

..2..

- 2] The terms and conditions of amicable settlement (Exh.21) shall form part of this order.
- 3] Case papers be filed.

Date:- 29/01/2019
Place : Chamorshi

Sd/-
(Liladhar D.Korde)
Judicial Magistrate First Class,
Chamorshi.