

ORDER BELOW EXH.1 IN CIV. M.A.NO. 01/2018

CNR NO. MHTH170000352018

Shri. Rahul Vasant Dhodi and anr.

... Applicants.

v/s.

Smt. Sarita Ankush Patel and ors.

... Respondents.

.....

Applicants have moved present application for heirship certificate for the purpose of compassionate benefit service scheme.

2] Applicants and respondents are the legal heirs of deceased Vasant Laxman Dhodi. He was working with the Maharashtra State Electricity Distribution Company Limited as a Technician. He was died on 30.06.2003. After the death, applicant no.2 applied to said company for the employment on the compassionate benefit service scheme. The said company demanded the certificate of heirship from the Court and therefore, they applied to the Court. They relied on the following documents.

- [1] verified copy of death certificate of Vasant Laxman Dhodi.
- [2] verified copy of Ration card of applicants.
- [3] verified copies of Aadhar cards of applicants.
- [4] Letter issued by M.S.E.D.C.L., Palghar to applicant no.2, dated 06.01.2018.

3] After filing of the application paper publication was issued in daily Newspaper, 'Tarun Bharat' dated 24.01.2018. Despite of the sufficient opportunity none has appeared and contest the application.

4] Respondents are daughters of deceased Vasant Laxman Dhodi. They have filed their say by vide exh.14 and stated that they have no objection for issuance of heirship certificate on the name of applicants. It prima facie reveals that the Vasant Laxman Dhodi was died on 30.06.2003 left behind him applicants and respondents as the legal heirs. Hence, I pass the following order.

ORDER

- 1] Application is allowed.
- 2] Issue heirship certificate for compassionate service benefit scheme on the name of applicants, on the payment of minimum court fee of Rs.200/-.
