

Order below Exh.1

(Dated 11.02.2019)

I have perused the record from it reveals that this is contesting probate proceeding. Non-applicant no.2 and 3 have strongly opposed the probate proceeding on the ground that the alleged Will dt.08.06.2012 was not genuine which was executed by the deceased Mahadeo Jago Warghane. The deceased Jago Warghane has executed the Will during his lifetime and after his death the non-applicants become the absolute owner and co-sharer of field survey no.27 and 30 of Mouza Krushnapeth. Section 295 of the Indian Succession Act speaks that, the contesting probate proceeding is required to be tried as Regular Civil Suit according to the provision of the Code of Civil Procedure. In view of the above provision as this probate proceeding is required to be tried as Regular Civil Suit. Hence, issues are required to be framed in this matter. Hence, I proceed to frame the issues accordingly.
