

Present: Sh. Sony Garg Adv., for petitioner
Sh. HS Dhaliwal Adv., for respondent

Arguments not addressed. Learned counsel for the parties stated that there are no chance of compromise between the parties and no useful purpose will be served by referring them to mediation centre and as such the matter is not referred to ADR mechanism. From the pleadings of the parties, the following issues were framed :-

- 1 Whether the petitioner is entitled to the custody of minor Amrinder singh as prayed for? OPP.
- 2 Whether the petitioner is not legally maintainable in the present form? OPR.
- 3 Relief.

No other issue arises or pressed for. Onus of the issues not disputed by the counsels. The parties are also directed to file their list of witnesses, as mandated by Order 16 of CPC and pay their expenses if any, applicable in summoning the witnesses, as required by the parties. It is also made clear to the parties that in view of the Order 18 of CPC, it is the plaintiff and the defendant, as the case may be, who has to examine themselves first, before any witness are examined by the respective parties. Replication if any be also filed on the said date. Now the matter stands adjourned for 31.08.2018 for evidence of the plaintiff on filing of list of witnesses/PF/DM etc., within 7 days, failing which no assistance shall be provided for ensuring the presence of the Court.
