Judgment

09/08/2017

It is stated that compliance to the extent of passing the order has been made but due payment as a consequence of it has not been given to the five petitioners out of many though others have received the due amount.

Learned Additional Advocate General Shri Shyam Arya submits that directions have already been issued to make payment and actual payment has also been made. If anybody has not received the payment, it may be due to strike of the employees but due payment to the remaining petitioners would also be paid immediately after strike is over.

In view of the statement aforesaid, the notices are discharged and the contempt petition stands disposed. If due payment is not made to the five petitioners out of many, they would be at liberty to file a fresh contempt petition.
