DOCKET ORDER

Accused called present. Lw1 Rudraveni Mallesham, and Devaiah present. Both parties negotiated to settle the disputes in Lok Adalath in terms of compromise and filed a joint memo. On perusal of the entire contents of charge sheet, this court has altered the section of law from section 324 IPC to section 323 IPC, on the grounds that the accused caused simple injury to the injured person, by means of weapon, which is not traced-out in the commission of offence and no medical evidence also supported the case of prosecution. Therefore the above case is referred to Lok Adalath in respect of the offence under section 323 IPC. Hence the accused is acquitted under section 320(8) CrPC for the offence under section 323 IPC.
