Order No. 11 dated 30.01.2021

Today is fixed for filing copy of newspaper publication.

Petitioners are present.

The copy of newspaper publication is filed by the petitioners.

Perused the newspaper publication being the 25th December, 2020 edition of Bengali daily newspaper Sangbad Pratidin. It is revealed from the said revision that the notice of the present probate application has been duly published on page 6 of the said newspaper informing the general public about the filing of the present case and also about the period of thirty days for appearing before the Court and filing objection, if any, regarding the subject matter of the present application.

After computation it is found that the period of thirty days mentioned in the newspaper publication has already lapsed. None appeared before this Court to oppose the present application. Therefore, there is no impediment in proceeding further with the present probate case.

To 23.02.2021 for evidence.
