

M. Case No:- 01 of 2016

Order Dated 12-09-2018.

The petitioner is present by filing hazira. The opposite party is also present. At this stage the petitioner submitted that she does not intend to continue with this case. The petitioner has filed a petition to that effect.

As stipulated by the previous order today is fixed for hearing.

Ld lawyer for the petitioner submitted before me that the petitioner does not want to prosecute her claim any more and for that reason this case may be disposed of accordingly.

The petitioner herself has ratified on dock that she does not intend to continue with this case. She was explained the consequences of her statement but she has candidly stated that she does not intend to continue with this case.

Form the above set facts that has transpired before me, it is evident that the petitioner does not want to proceed against the opposite party. When indeed the dispute has been diluted by dialogues then this court should always welcome this type of reconciliation because this boosts our social archetype.

In view of the deposition of the petitioner I find no rational reason to protract this case any further.

Hence, it is Ordered

That in view of the deposition of the petitioner, this case instituted under Section 125 of the Cr.P.C is disposed of for non-prosecution. B.C-II to take note.
