ORDER

Counsel for the complainants submits that deed of settlement signed between the parties has been submitted with the Registry even though it is not showing in our record today.

Counsel for the complainants further submits that he client has got possession of the flat. However, certain other payments that had to be given to the society towards maintenance by the OP has still to be received. She further submits that it is her information that the amounts have been paid but have yet to be duly reflected in the society's account. She seeks some more time in order that the terms of the settlement are fully complied with.
